

PINK BANNER Hadith

(memorize all of these to earn the Pink Banner)

Good character is half of faith.

God is forgiving to those who forgive others.

The best people are those who are most helpful to others.

Islam is purity of speech and hospitality.

Greet those whom you know and those whom you don't know.

Friendliness is the best quality in a human being.

Respect a guest and do not inconvenience your neighbors.

God is gentle and loves gentleness.

One who is not affectionate to youngsters, nor respectful to elders is not one of us.

Keep away from envy because it destroys good deeds like fire destroys wood.

What are the best things to do? To make someone happy, feed the hungry, help someone who is hurt, and to cheer up someone who is sad.

Speak the truth even if it is against your own self.

One who doesn't thank others does not thank God.

Happiness is found in correcting one's own mistake rather than pointing out the mistakes of others.

[At least, while awake] from sunrise to sunset, keep your heart free from hating anyone.

Strength is being able to control your anger rather than being able to hurt another.
